

The importance of online teacher academic profile website in the annual assessments

---

Assistant lecturer : nazar hayas abbas

About

Title:

The importance of online teacher academic profile website in the annual assessments

Presenter :

Assistant lecturer : nazar hayas abbas

Affiliation :

Accounting department - cihan university - erbil

Place and Date:

Academic hall - building 8

18 - 5- 2020

Summary

---

The annual evaluation of the performance of university teachers is one of the most important activities of the Quality Assurance Unit in all universities, and because technology has entered all areas of life, Cihan University - Erbil has created a website through which the university teachers preserves all his rights from documents and files online, which facilitates the completion of the process of evaluating associate performance This step mainly aims to reduce the time spent in the evaluation process, reduce waste and reduce costs that were prevalent in the past when conducting the paper evaluation process, in addition to the availability of that process of owning an integrated database for all university employees in order to use the methods Mieh in the overall planning process in order to use human resource optimally

Tap definition

Teacher Academic Profile

It is a website through which the university lecturer preserves all his rights from documents and files online

Its importance

- Facilitating the evaluation process
- Reduce time
- Reduce costs
- Data base

Main activities

seminars

Presenting and attending

Scientific
publications

Journals and conferences

Workshops

Presenting and attending

Scientific
committees

Department , university and others

Review

Would you recommend this seminar?
Write your review here.